Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Dale E. Hall and Marcia K. Pranger exchanged their wedding vows on August 27, 1956, at the First Baptist Church at Sioux Falls, South Dakota, promising to share their lives and love together for the rest of their days; and,

Whereas, The newly-wed couple of 50 years ago has been replaced by two devoted partners who have shared life's beauty and sorrow, and have grown to love one another more because of their common journey; and,

Whereas, Dale and Marcia gave life and love to three children: Mike, Steve and Jeff, and they, in turn, have blessed their parents' lives with eight grandchildren; and,

Whereas, Dale taught and coached in the Geddes, Kimball, Brandon and Wagner school systems and retired as superintendent from Wagner with a combined 35-year career in education; and,

Whereas, Marcia taught school at Lake Andes, Delmont and Wagner and retired with 29 years of credit to her teaching career; and,

Whereas, Dale enjoyed farming on the side and Marcia spent her leisure time reading, and both like to collect antiques; and,

Whereas, It is altogether fitting and proper that the Governor of South Dakota recognizes and commemorates the memorable milestones in the lives of the state's outstanding citizens as their children host an open house on August 13, 2006, in honor of their 50th Anniversary:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim August 27, 2006, as in South Dakota, and I join with the honored couple's family and friends in wishing them continued health and happiness in a state that stands prouder today because of their contributions and commitment.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this First Day of August in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Six.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
